

Sheridan Reads
presents

the Book of Negroes

Monday, January 19, 2015 | 6:30 p.m. – 9:30 p.m.

Located at the The Marquee, Trafalgar Road Campus | 1430 Trafalgar Road, Oakville

*Lawrence Hill, author of Winter 2015 Sheridan Reads selection
The Book of Negroes, will deliver the inaugural Creative Campus Series address “Mining Creativity: Perspectives from a Novelist and Screenwriter.”*

This event is open to the public and seating is on a first come first served basis.
Arrive early to avoid disappointment. It will also be live-streamed to the Sheridan website.
On the day of the event, visit sheridancollege.ca for a link to the live stream.

Sheridan
Faculty of Humanities and Social Sciences